

Fun in the studio!
I am so thankful to have recently received this striped pot made by my cousin Helene. I love it and it inspires me every time I look at it.

A combined creation.
Stella Corby's hand-built "Dragon Pot" where I added a little dragon peering over the edge.

Ludlow was the start of my attempt at embracing whimsy. Life had become too serious and creating Ludlow helped me laugh.